

Neas House Reopens for 2024 Season on April 20th!

"The wheels on the bus go round and round..."

Wheels are part of our everyday lives – but what do we know about them and how they are made?

Come to the Season Opening of the Hanover Area Historical Society's Neas House on Saturday, April 20, 2024, from 12-3 pm. Free and open to the public (donations appreciated).

Exhibit: Tools of the Trades from the 1700s & 1800s with a presentation and demonstration from

Clair Zeider. Wheelwright and Historian

Demonstration on how different tools from an earlier era were used then – and how they are used today. Mr. Zeider is the wheelwright at Dill's Tavern Historic Site in Dillsburg, PA.

Clair Zeider (L) and Jason Metzger (R), craftsmen at Dill's Tavern.

Neas House is on the National Register of Historic Places: corner of W Chestnut & High Streets, Hanover, PA.
