2026-2027 PROPOSED OFFICERS AND BOARD MEMBERS

Officers and Class of 2029 Board members are submitted to all members for election/reelection at the Annual 2026 Membership Meeting. Board Members with current active terms not up for reelection are Class of 2028 and 2027

Officers 2026-2027

- President: Jeffrey Rosenzweig. Current President of HAHS and co-chairs of the HAHS Travel Committee and Human Resource Committee. Jeff has been instrumental on the Executive Committee in reviewing contracts for the Bank of Hanover Project. He is a trial lawyer at the Law Office of Eugene Glazer in Baltimore, which he owns and manages. Jeff is a volunteer leader of Boy Scout Troop 103 and leads them on many adventure trips. He supports the Mansion lawn concerts and Tree Tours with guiding the boy scouts in food service at the events. Jeff is President of the Hanover Hebrew Congregation and is Secretary of Puzzle Lake Development Corporation.
- President-Elect: Patricia Miller. Past President of HAHS and co-chairs our Travel committee, Human Resource committee and Mansion Teas and Christmas tree tour greeter. She worked with the Development committee to bring in endowments and grants for HAHS. She served on the Homewood Residents' Association, the York County Chamber Board of Directors, and the York Community Foundation Board for aging initiatives, and the National Human Resource Management Society board. Pat served as the Executive Director of the Hanover Area Management Association and as an adjunct professor at the Penn State York campus. Pat is the Owner/President of Miller HR Consulting. Pat started the Andrea Neiderer Fund through YCCF for Jersey College Nursing Program.
- Past President: K.C Wright. K.C. is a professional CAD designer, working for Evasco in Taneytown, MD. He was chair of the ad hoc Library Move Committee and of an informal youth involvement group. K.C. volunteers for many of our events and especially enjoys being a docent for the Christmas Tree Tours.
- Secretary: Sharon Krebs. Sharon is the Society's Secretary. She co-chairs HAHS's Docents Committee and is a member of the Marketing and Travel Committees. Currently a part-time Customer Service employee at the Hanover Area YMCA, she also chairs their Risk Management Committee. A former English teacher with a BS in Secondary Education, she worked for SKF Inc. for 40 years, spending the last 15 years in Safety, Health and Training.
- Treasurer: Keith Mummert. Keith Mummert is HAHS's Treasurer and Chair of our Finance Committee. Keith retired from M&T Bank in April 2025 where he was a Vice President specializing in business lending. He obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from the University of Pennsylvania and an MBA degree in Finance from Loyola University Maryland. Keith has been a key member of many major projects with the Society.
- Assistant Treasurer: VACANT

Class of 2029

- Ethel Smith: A native Hanoverian, Ethel was born and raised in Penn Township. She attended Penn Township schools and graduated from Eichelberger High School. After her husband passed away in 2008, Ethel started spending more time volunteering. She has been a member of the Historical Society since its early days and did a little volunteering then. Now, the Photo Department and the Neas House are her "special places" to volunteer. Ethel is the Board liaison to the Southwestern York County History Consortium.
- Richard Crouse: Dick joined HAHS in 2008 and was a former board member for two terms and has been the team lead for the Photo group. Born in Frederick, MD – 1934, he graduated from Delone Catholic High School in 1953 and married Nancy Blettner Crouse in 1954. He moved to Hanover in 1955 and worked for CAM industry until his retirement in 1999. Dick has been active with the Boy Scouts for over 30 years.
- Estelle King: Estelle moved to Hanover in the 70's. She began volunteering and supporting Hoffman Homes, Admas Hanover Counseling Service (True North Wellness) and Hanover Area Council of Churches which she helped settle into their current downtown Hanover location. Estelle has served in many positions at Emmanuel United Church of Christ including President of Consistory, Search Committee, and co-chair of the Missions Committee. She coordinates Emanual Church's turn to prepare and serve PAL lunches for HACC. Each year she presents information on Fisher House for a special collection to support families of hospitalized veterans across the country. Estelle has been a board member of Homewood at Plum Creem, Eichelberger Performing Arts Center and Hanover Little Theater. She has served the Hanover Area Historical Society as a board member, fundraiser, and volunteer. She established a legacy gift to Homewood Retirement in honor of her husband Rick.

Class of 2028

- Kristen Dubs: Kristen is a scout leader and 27-year resident of Hanover. You have seen her helping with ice cream at the Lawn Concerts and with hot chocolate during the Christmas Tree tours. She is a former Girl Scout leader, former Cubmaster of Cub Scout Pack 103 and current Merit Badge Instructor and Assistant Scoutmaster/Committee Member with Boy Scout Troop 103. She is the proud mother of 3 children: Andi, who works in Communications at Georgia Tech; Ian, who works with her at Treehouse Foods; and Adam (AJ), a recent Eagle Scout, who just started his freshman year at Penn State. She is employed as a Finite Scheduler at Treehouse Foods in Hanover, where her husband Pete is the Operations Manager.
- Patty Hegberg: Patty Hegberg currently co-chairs the HAHS Marketing Committee and a previous Board Member and President. Patty and Chuck, her husband of 36 years, moved to the Hanover area from Maryland in 1990 and to the Borough of Hanover in 2016. One reason for that move was to support revitalization efforts in town. Patty is a financial planner with Thrivent, focusing mainly on retirement planning. She and her husband are active members of the Hanover Valley Presbyterian Church. Patty is also on the board of Thirsty Souls Ministries. Among her interests are traveling to national parks and Europe, baking, cooking for family, friends and neighbors and reading good books. She and Chuck have two adult children, a "delightful golden retriever and a sometimes-naughty cat."
- Peg Sennett: Peg Sennett's professional background is in Human Resources. She holds a degree and advanced certifications in HR and compensation/benefits. She worked for Hanover Foods/Snyders and then, in 1977, opened an HR consulting business to serve small and mid-size Hanover companies with their complex HR issues. Following Hurricane Katrina and a volunteer stint with the Red Cross in Louisiana, she started a non-profit, Joining Hands in Disaster Response. For the next fifteen years over 500 volunteers gave their time to rebuild homes destroyed by hurricanes from New Jersey to Texas. Through the years she has served on local non-profit Boards and Committees, including St. Paul's Lutheran Church, the Chamber of Commerce, Hanover YWCA, Rotary Club of Hanover and Rotary International where she visited and hosted professionals from around the world in developing international understanding. Peg's husband Jim was a member of the HAHS Museum Committee and was supportive in building the History Museum. Jim built a scale replica of the Warehime Myers Mansion and the Carriage House from the original blueprints. Upon Jim's death, HAHS accessioned the model as part of its permanent collection.
- Barbara Wert: Dr. Barbara Wert has served on the HAHS board previously. A member of the Museum Committee, she has served as the lead on the committee's Textile Team. That team has evolved into the Neas House Team, which promotes the importance of the building with events, activities and regular open houses. Barbara says her favorite thing as a volunteer is cataloguing the textiles at the Neas House. Barbara is a native Hanoverian who graduated from Spring Grove High School in 1971. She holds the status of Professor Emeritus with Bloomsburg University. Today, she does part-time work for Delone Catholic High School. Long-time member of the Society's Library Committee, Barbara stepped up recently to serve as the "unofficial interim chair" of the committee and worked tirelessly on the relocation of the Yelland Research Library and Archives to the new Hormel History and Research Center. When not volunteering for HAHS, Barbara loves to spend time with her family.

Class of 2027

- Steven Kopp: Steve retired in 2017 from the Department of Defense, U.S. Army, being employed as a Local Area Network (LAN) Manager. At his previous church in Catonsville, MD, he was co-chair of both the Technology and Finance Committees. Steve began volunteering at the Yelland Library in December 2023 and Is the current Chair of the Library Committee and the Technology Committee.
- C. Michael Noble, II: Mike was president of HAHS from 2017-2018 and will be serving a second three-year term on the Board. He is active on the Docents Committee. Now retired, he was a teacher for Berks Intermediate Unit 14 and vice president of his family business, the New Oxford Aluminum Company, Inc. Mike was also a therapist with True North Counseling.
- Lauren Picco: Lauren worked in the Admissions office at McDaniel College, working with data entry and supervising student workers. Her next stop was Textron (AAI) where she worked in Procurement Compliance and was also responsible for creating reports and presentations. Her last stop was at BAE Systems as a Data and Systems Analyst for Contract Operations. She was responsible data analysis and reporting, implementing new data systems and training existing and new employees on these systems. Now retired, Lauren is on the Docents Committee.
